This fall 2017, take part in a three-session Gather Bible study on the Apostles' Creed and what we together say we believe. Gather is the magazine of Women of the ELCA. The Bible Study's author Julia Seymour, is pastor at Lutheran Church of Hope, Anchorage, Alaska.

Session 1: Tuesday, September 12th @ 7:00 pm I believe in God...

"The Apostles' Creed is one of the oldest unifying symbols of Christianity. Groups of early Christians needed a tool for teaching and evangelism that explained the basics of the faith. The Apostles' Creed shaped their baptismal training, blessing in dying and how communities of faith defined themselves in faithful union. The creed has three parts or articles. The first article talks about God, the Holy Creator and Parent of all things. We'll explore what the Apostles' Creed says about God—and what it leaves undefined—as well as how this stirs our holy imagination."

ANYONE INTERESTED in learning what is involved with helping out on Altar Guild is welcome to talk to Gisela Heim or Karen Gehring.
